The clean-cut victory of the Yanken boat Manchester over the Canadian defender Alexandra has set yachting cir-cles a buzzing, and Yankee yachtsmen are overjoyed at the success of the American challenger who has brought lenged for the trophy, are jubilant and are receiving the congratulations of yachtsmen all over the country.

The final race was sailed yesterday for the cup, the Yankee boat having won the first two races in gallant style. The terseness of the struggles for possession of the trupley was demonstrated when, before the final race, both boats when, before the final race, both boats, were put into dry-dock and palished.

The course yesterday was a two-mile beat to windward and a run home, to be sailed three times, making twelve miles in all. The Manchester's final victory was even more decisive than her other two. Although the Canadian boat her across the starting line, the Manchester won by 9 minutes and 25 seconds.

During the race the Alexandra's sails collapsed, but this made no difference; in the result of the race, as they were reset in two minutes.
